

Washington Farm Bureau Annual Meeting

November 13th - 14th

Yakima Convention Center, Yakima, WA

Annual Meeting is a special time to gather all Farm Bureau Voting members from across Washington State. We take time to celebrate the prior year's accomplishments, set forth the organization's direction for the upcoming year, and get informed on the issues affecting you today and tomorrow. Please join us in attending this year's Annual Meeting and make sure your voice is heard!

Let's fill up the Yakima Convention Center! Every delegate in attendance that helps their County Farm Bureau have a full delegation seated at opening and closing sessions will personally receive a cash prize as a thank you for attending.

Some of this year's speakers, presenters & entertainers

Dr. Andre Wright

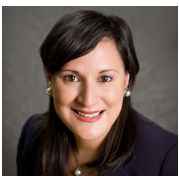

André-Denis Wright is Dean of the College of Agricultural, Human, and Natural Resource Sciences at Washington State University (WSU).

Brian Hodges

Brian Hodges is a Senior Attorney at PLF's Pacific Northwest office in Bellevue, Washington. Brian focuses his practice on defending the right of individuals to make reasonable use of their property, free of unnecessary and oppressive regulations.

Caroline Lobdell

Caroline has extensive experience with complex litigation cases and contested case hearings and currently serves as the Executive Director and Clinical Law Professor for the Western Resources Legal Center.

Fun Night - Night at the Races

Experience the excitement of a day or night at the track with video horse races. Photo finishes, instant replays, official results, and payouts according to the live odds are given

Registration and Fees

Early Bird registration: $90 (Begins September 17th, Ends October 15)

General registration: $100 (Begins October 16th)

For more information, go to wsfb.com

See you in Yakima!